

[L'FNB participa a l'aliança estratègica de la UPC amb la Universitat Shaoxing \[1\]](#)

Date: Dijous, 31 gener, 2019 - 13:15

On 20 November,

the UPC and Shaoxing University signed a collaboration agreement for the creation of a technology transfer centre at the Chinese university and the promotion of 10 joint research projects on textile and civil engineering. The agreement strengthens the presence of the University in a region of China with which it has strong ties, as reflected in the Sino-Spanish Campus at Tongji University and the University's agreements with Ningbo University.
