Language

When you reach Barcelona you will notice, that there are two official languages coexisting in a bilingual social context, Catalan and Spanish. In Barcelona School of Nautical Studies, courses are also given in Catalan or Spanish depending on the lecturer’s choice. Although these languages have the same Latin origin and are very similar, the UPC offers both Catalan and Spanish courses so that you can learn the differences and be able to master them in order to follow the different courses successfully.

- UPC Orientation Week [6]

The Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya · BarcelonaTech (UPC) organises different sessions of the Orientation Week (OW). The OW basically addresses international exchange bachelor’s degree students who are due to begin studying at the UPC in the spring semester. Full-time master’s degree students are also welcome.

The OW includes an institutional welcome, information on legal procedures and the main UPC services that can help students during their stay, an introductory workshop on Catalan language and culture, one sports session and also a social/cultural activity.

- Accommodation

Our school doesn't have an accommodation service, but in the following site you can find some useful information
